Laithan scoops top prize

Laithan Taylor, 10, of Mundaring, has been named top junior ice cream judge.

Laithan was one of five winners of a 6PR radio competition to be an ice cream judge for a day during last week's judging of the 2011 IGA Perth Royal Show dairy competition at Claremont Showground. (Thurs Sep 1)

Ice cream judge Mylene Lantano gave the children tips on what to look for when judging ice cream, including flavour, texture and smoothness.

Laithan took out the honours as one of his top picks, Gelati Sky Chocolate, was also Mylene's top scoring ice cream.

"I really like chocolate so I chose that," he said.

Chief steward of the competition, John Watson, said the children had a tough job and took it very seriously.

"You couldn't hear a pin drop while they were making their selections," he said.

"Everyone in the room was on the edge of their seat."

The public will have the chance to sample ice cream and other dairy delights in the Dairy Pavilion during the 2011 IGA Perth Royal Show from October 1 to October 8.

Thanks to the State Government's support of CHOGM 2011, all children aged 12 years and under will receive FREE entry to this year's Show when accompanied by an adult.
