Guidelines and Conditions for Voluntary workers at Perth Royal Show

Our Mission: Is to serve and enrich the people of Western Australia by showcasing the resources and endeavours of its people.

Not for Profit: As a “not for profit” organisation, we are reliant on the assistance of volunteers. They are important to us in presenting a successful Perth Royal Show.

Attendance All volunteers attending the Show are subject to these guidelines and conditions and any directions from The RAS.

Work Details Details of the work to be performed by the Volunteer will be advised on the day of attendance by a designated Volunteer Coordinator

Reporting and Directions The volunteer acknowledges that the Volunteer is an independent person undertaking to work at the Showground voluntarily and there is no relationship of employer and employee or principal and agent. No remuneration will be paid for the work.

Details and Emergency Contact As legally required by The RAS, all Volunteers must provide, in writing, relevant details for identification purposes and where necessary proof of such identity, along with details of their Emergency Contact being a person readily contactable during the duration of their working at the Showground.

Fit for Duty The Volunteer warrants that they are fit for the purpose of acting as a volunteer at the Showground and further warrants that they have no known physical or mental condition likely to affect the full time performance of their duties.

Laws and Approvals It is the Volunteer’s responsibility to obtain all legal approvals necessary to enable their attendance as a Volunteer and the Volunteer acknowledges that the RAS has no responsibility nor liability for the volunteer failing to obtain such approvals.

Insurance The RAS warrants that it has taken out and maintains both Public Liability and Personal Accident Insurance to cover the Volunteer from any claims arising out of liability incurred whilst working at the Showground. All other insurance is for the Volunteer.

Risk The volunteer indemnifies The RAS against all claims arising out of the Volunteer’s participation at the Showground and such claims include all actions suits costs claims demands brought against the RAS by any person firm or corporation arising out of any negligent or improper act or omission by the Volunteer participating in The RAS.

Loss or damage to property To the extent permitted by law, The RAS shall not be under any liability to the Volunteer in respect of any loss or damage, however caused, which may be suffered or incurred or arise as a result of or in connection with the Volunteer’s work, the Showground or the Volunteer’s presence at the Showground for that purpose.

OH&S All volunteers are required to exercise reasonable care in the course of their work and in a manner that ensures the health and safety of themselves and others. Volunteers are required to be aware of and comply with the Occupational Health and Safety requirements of the RAS.

Environmental Obligations The Volunteer must not bring any dangerous, noxious, toxic, volatile, explosive, inflammable or environmentally hazardous substance or compound in any form onto the Showgrounds and indemnifies The RAS for any damages or claims resulting from any breach of this condition.

Cancellation The RAS reserves the right at its sole discretion to advise the Volunteer that their attendance is no longer required at the Showground at any time if there is a breach of these Conditions and Guidelines or for any other reason.

Prohibited Activities The Volunteer is advised that the collection of monies, the selling of any goods including food and beverages and the distribution of pamphlets, stickers, or balloons are not permitted at the Showground.

Privacy Act Information provided to The RAS by the Volunteer could be deemed 'personal information' pursuant to the Privacy Act. This information is collected by The RAS for the purpose of recording this arrangement and ensuring that the records of The RAS are correct and efficient. The Volunteer has the right of access to and alteration of the personal information concerning the Volunteer in terms of Privacy Act.

Publicity The Volunteer acknowledges that the performance of their duties as a volunteer at the Showground may result in media attention including but not limited to telecommunication and newspaper and magazine and electronic and print media coverage to themselves, to their activities or to volunteers as a group.

I have read and understood the above Conditions and Guidelines and sign by way of acknowledgement and acceptance.
